Delinquent Announced
Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Mayo of 504 North First, Dayton, Wash., announced the engagement of their daughter, Olive, to Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. Nelson, of this city. Both young people are graduates of Sandpoint high school. Miss Mayo is in her senior year of nursing training at the Deaconess hospital and Whitworth college, Spokane.
Mr. Nelson, who served with the marines following his graduation from high school, is a recent graduate of the University of Idaho. He is presently employed at the Bargain Supply.
Dinner Honors Traveler
Mrs. Rose Maxwell entertained a group of friends Wednesday evening at her home in honor of Mrs. E. J. Thomas, who returned Sept. 13 from England where she had spent the summer, with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kemery, at Readington, Oxford, England. The same group had bid the traveler bon voyage and were anxious to hear of her adventures in England and France.
The guests were Mrs. O. B. Parker, Mrs. Anna Foster, Mrs. Ruby Phelps, Mrs. Alta Foster and Dr. Charles Martin.
Reports Are Read
At the last meeting of the Women of the Moose on Sept. 24, reports were read by publicity, social service, Moosehaven and membership chairmen along with special committee reports. Announcement was made of the public card party to be held Oct. 1 at 8 p. m., at the Moose hall.
Mrs. Marcia Johnson, Mrs. Pearl Barich and Mrs. Ray Simmet served refreshments at the close of the business session.
The next regular meeting will be Mooseheart night on Oct. 8 at 8 p. m., at the Moose hall.
Joint Hobo Party
A joint hobo party for members of the Loyal Order of the Moose and Women of the Moose will be held on Monday, Oct. 26, at the Moose hall. All lodge members and co-workers are cordially invited to attend, it was announced.

That such delinquent certificates did show that property herein described was as herebefore duly and regularly assessed in the name and amount given for taxes levied for the years stated above, which taxes are a lien upon said property and are now unpaid and delinquent. That such delinquent certificate stated all matters and things required by law to be stated therein. That the time for redemption will expire January 4, 1954.
THEREFORE, I, Billie L. King, Treasurer and ex-officio Tax Collector of Bonner County, State of Idaho, further give notice that I shall, after expiry of the time of redemption as provided by statute, issue to the County of Bonner, a deed for above property if said property shall not have been redeemed by payment of tax, penalty, interests and costs in respect of said delinquent taxes for said years, said payment to be made to me at my office at Sandpoint, Idaho prior to January 4, 1954.
BILLIE L. KING,
Treasurer and ex-officio Tax Collector of Bonner County, Idaho.

Western Square Dance
Mr. and Mrs. Forest Wetterow and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Revell will be hosts for the western dance at the Community hall on Saturday, Oct. 3, at 8 o'clock. Ivan Patterson of Bonners Ferry will be caller.
The club will furnish coffee, those attending will provide their own sack lunch.
Elara Jean Boothe Is Bride of Robert Turnbull
Rev. P. J. Dooley officiated at the double ring ceremony which united Miss Elara Jean Boothe and Robert Turnbull in marriage on Friday, Sept. 25, at 2 o'clock in St. Joseph's Catholic church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James El Boothe of Sagle and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Turnbull, also of Sagle.
Baskets of pink and white gladioli and bouquets of asters adorned the altar. Mrs. O. W. Vanden Velden played the wedding marches and sang "Ave Maria".
The bride, who was escorted to the altar by her father, wore a navy blue suit with white accessories. She carried white carnations tied with white satin streamers to which were attached white rosebuds on a white prayer book.
Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Frances Hawkins, who was attired in a navy blue suit with red accessories. She carried a nosegay of white and pink carnations.
Bridesmaids were Miss Lasean Boothe, sister of the bride, who wore a brown pin-check suit with green accessories, and Mrs. Deloris Turnbull, sister-in-law of the groom, attired in a green suit with white accessories. They carried white and pink carnation nosegays.
James Turnbull was his brother's best man. Ushers were John Fox, uncle of the bride, and Walter Eldred.
Mrs. Boothe chose a navy blue afternoon dress with black accessories and Mrs. Turnbull a black and white checked dress with pink accessories. Both mothers wore white carnation corsages.
Following the ceremony, a reception was held on the lawn of the Boothe home at Sagle. The beautiful four-tier wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom, was baked by the bride's mother. After the initial cut by the bride and groom, it was cut by Mrs. L. H. Cluzel and served by Miss Marie Converse, Mrs. Ross Converse and Mrs. Glen Judge. Mrs. Noel Hawkins cut the groom's birthday cake.
Miss Anna Fox, cousin of the bride, passed the guest book.
After a week's honeymoon to Pingree, Idaho and other points of interest, Mr. and Mrs. Turnbull will be at home at Sagle.
Mrs. Turnbull attended the Sagle grade school and the Sandpoint high school. Mr. Turnbull graduated from the local high school. He spent 27 months in the army during World War II and at the present is engaged in farming in the Sagle community.
Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. George Meyer and family of Clayton, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Roy Turnbull of Priest lake, Paul Thompson and Mrs. Mary Fox of Flk, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wonch and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Little of Priest River.
