I would like to acknowledge the generosity of Morag Carter, a contact from Roxburghshire, Scotland for sending me most of this information.

George Turnbull 1783 was born at Hillshaugh Hobkirk family Bible and Rulewater and its People by George Tancred

I. George Turnbull was born at Hillshaugh in 1783. He married Margaret Scott, and became, like his grandfather, a carrier or travelling merchant, selling his goods throughout the district, and frequently acting as the disseminator of news when newspapers were few and costly. They had issue:—

James, baptized 1805 at Kirknow.

Thomas, baptized 1806 at Unthank; and another child not named.

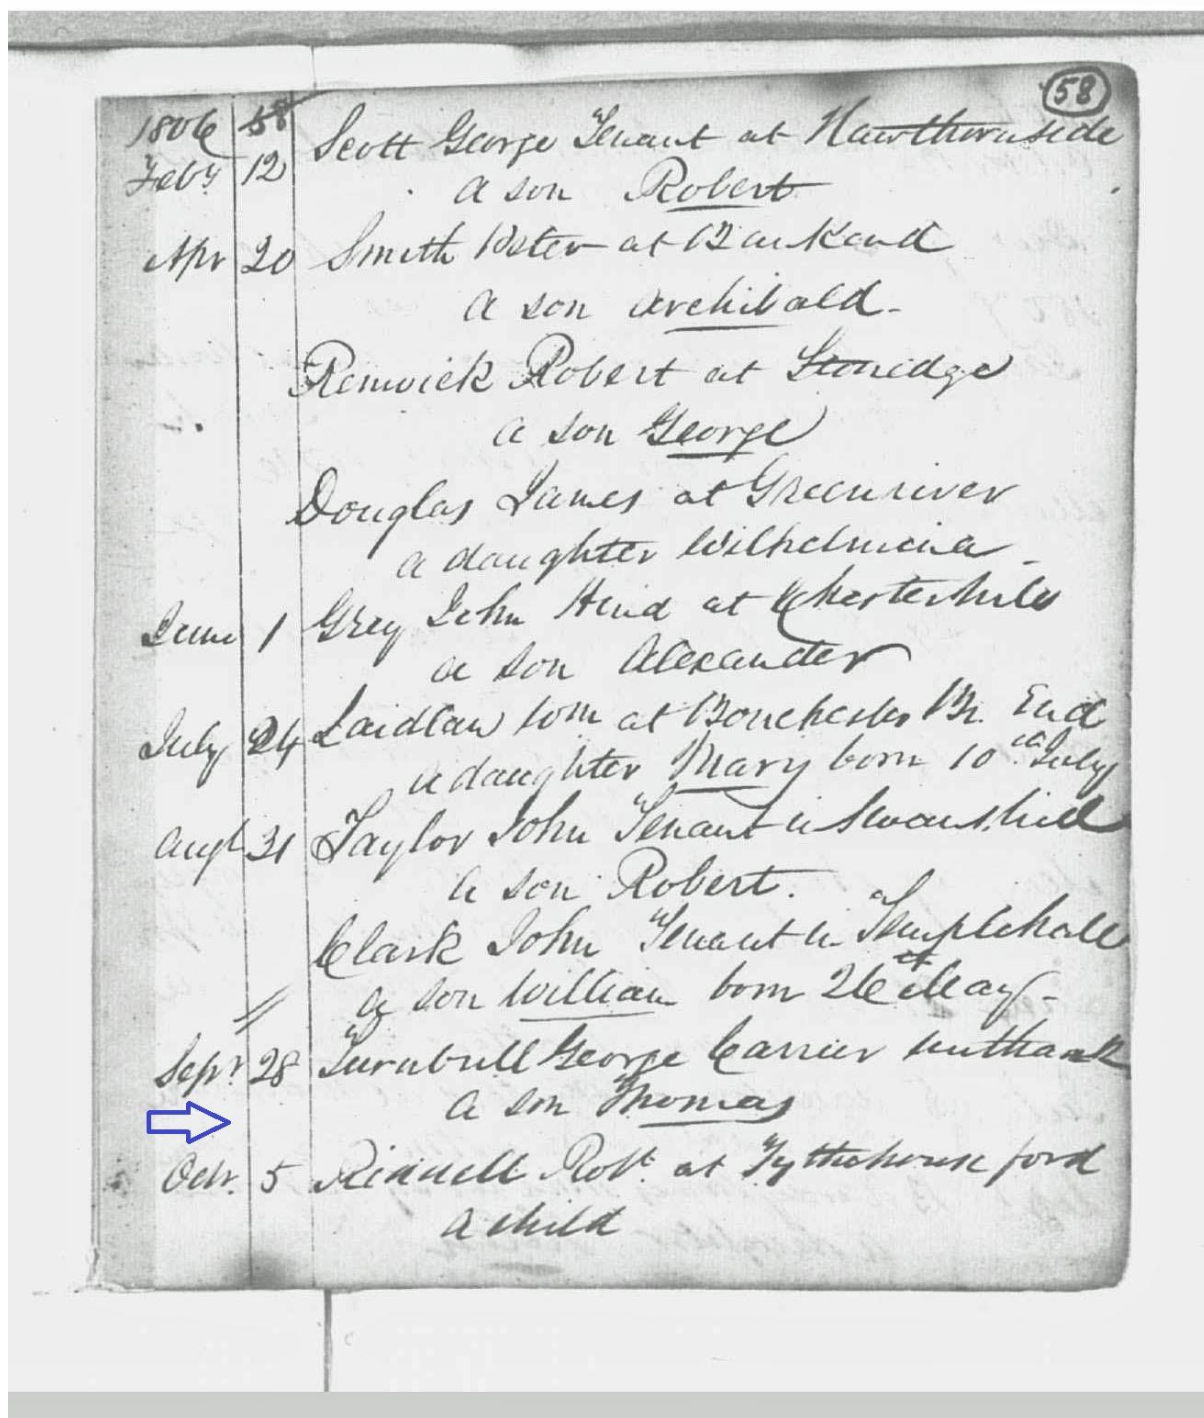

Margaret Scott died 15th August 1860, and Mr. Turnbull followed her to the grave in 1861, and both are interred in Ettledon old burial-place, parish of Newcastleton. In middle life they removed to the village of Newcastleton, and this accounts for their place of sepulture.
